the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of 'Goonda' as defined under sec. 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. All the incidents mentioned in the grounds of detention clearly substantiate as to how the acts of the detenu are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detenu in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the activities of the detenu have become detrimental to the lives of public dwelling around oil companies and prejudicial to maintenance of public order and having felt that mere launching of prosecution against the accused has not yielded any result in preventing him from committing theft of petroleum product, has passed the detention order against the detenu by invoking the provisions under the Act 1 of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the Detenu. As such, the detenu deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under sec.13 of the Act.

5. NOW, THEREFORE, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, the Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of Section-12 read with Section-13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of detention first read above, made by the Collector & District Magistrate, East Godavari District, Kakinada, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above, and direct that the detention of Sri Cherukuri Narendra Chowdary, S/o.
